

Teaching & Learning Annual Seminar 2024

Long Room Hub, Trinity College Dublin

Friday 1 March 2024

X @conultl #conultl24

Defining 'AI' in Teaching & Learning: the role of libraries in Access and Inclusion; Academic Integrity; and Artificial Intelligence

Programme

09:30 - 10:25                    Registration: Long Room Hub (Tea/Coffee / Pastries served on arrival)

10:25 - 10:30                    Welcome Áine Carey, Chair, CONUL T&L

10:30 - 11:05                    Guest Speaker

Dr Ana Schalk, Centre for Academic Practice, Trinity College Dublin

Unleashing Academic Integrity potential in a GenAI era: How the evolving landscape of GenAI reshapes academic integrity, presenting unprecedented challenges and opportunities for teaching and assessment practices

11:05 – 11:45                    Short Presentations Session 1

Jessica Handy, Digital Archivist Library Heritage Collection, RCSI
'Making the case' for inclusive community engagement at RCSI Library

Cory Newbigging, Assistant Librarian & Disability Advisor at Shannon College of Hotel Management, University of Galway

Two roles in one: The unique experience of an assistant librarian/disability advisor

Isolde Harpur, Subject Librarian, Trinity College Dublin

Teaching the Teachers: Academic and librarian collaborations in a Universal Design for Learning module

11:45 – 12:40                    Longer Paper Session 1

Áine Carey, Teaching & Research Development Librarian, Maynooth University
Stuart Lawler, Head of Digital Content / Business Development Manager, Sight & Sound Technology

Exploring accessibility challenges in library systems for visually impaired users: a case study of an Accessibility Audit and training programme carried out at MU Library

Diarmuid Kennedy, Subject Librarian, QUB

Building on Experience to Face the Future: Exploring the results of a CONUL T&L recent community survey

12:40 – 13:00                      Networking Activity: ‘Conversations & Connections’

13:00 – 13:45                      Lunch

13.45 – 14.45                      Panel Discussion

Chair: Arlene Healy, Director of Collections and Digital Services, UCD

The panel will explore challenges and next steps for libraries, in the context of the three-pronged seminar theme around ‘AI’, through the lens of their experiences

Panellists:

Helen Farrell, Academic Engagement Librarian, MU

Dr Loretta Goff, Academic Integrity Officer, UCC

Sinead Lynch, Postgraduate Research Student, DCU

Declan Treanor, Disability Service Director, TCD

14:45 – 15:10                      Longer Paper Session 2

Jeanie Parris, Faculty Subject Librarian, University of Ulster

Libraries on the move - Managing Library services during a time of relocation and merger

15:10 – 15:35                      Short Presentations Session 2

Lisa Callaghan, Information & Digital Literacy coordinator / Subject Librarian, DCU

Engaging Engineering students with academic integrity using Active Learning techniques

Ben Williamson, Learning and Teaching Librarian, UCC

Critical steps in teaching students to apply academic integrity

15:35 - 15:45                      Seminar Close Áine Carey, Chair, CONUL T&L